Greetings Potential Sponsor,

The Carrie-Lynn Grazette Cancer Foundation of Atlanta in collaboration with Team Barbados at the Consulate General of Barbados in Miami, The Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Foreign Trade and the Barbados Tourism Marketing Inc. invites you to partner with us in presenting the Carrie-Lynn Grazette Cancer Foundation of Atlanta (CLGCFALT Inc.) Bajan Day and Barbados Comes to Atlanta Extravaganza, May 25th through May 29th 2023 at Clayton County International Park, located at 2300 Hwy 138 SE, Jonesboro, GA 30236 (www.claytonparks.com).

The Carrie-Lynn Grazette Cancer Foundation of Atlanta Bajan Day showcases Barbados as a tourist destination of choice, the culture and food of Barbados, the loving friendly people, steady government, the sea, sun, fun, and the best talent directly from Barbados. 2023 is no exception as Barbados and Barbadians, continue to celebrate the freedoms we took for granted prior to Covid; there will a number of events during the weekend. The Bajan Day event is a festive day of food, music and dance that consistently attracts approximately 1000 guests each year.

“Barbados Comes To” is a biennial event which has become known as a networking platform to promote commercial development and culture. The event also aims to strengthen relationships between Barbadian businesses and heritage agencies in Barbados and similar ones in the Southern United States.

Atlanta is the capital and most populous city of the U.S. state of Georgia and seat of Fulton County. Interestingly, at present, the city is the major business center and primary transportation hub of the South-eastern US. The city Atlanta has been rated as “alpha (-) world city by Loughborough University. The city is known for black wealth and political power; the home of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. the city is also the cradle of Civil Rights Movement. However, at present, it is the center of various activities including finance, services, information technology, government, higher education, and film and TV production. Atlanta is also the significant base for the hip hop, gospel, and neo soul music.

Atlanta is the home to 29 of America’s largest corporations (Fortune 1000), including 16 ranked in the elite Fortune 500. Also, home to hundreds of companies including the headquarters of the Coca-Cola Company, Delta Airlines, AT & T Mobility, Turner Broadcasting, and the Home Depot. Surprisingly, with so many features, the city is ranked in the top ten most visited cities in the United States. Above all, it is also one of the favorite destinations in the United States for the tourists of the world.

The significant attractions in the city are:

- Martin Luther King, Jr. National Historic Site
- Georgia Aquarium (it is the world’s largest indoor aquarium)
- Atlanta Cyclorama & Civil War Museum
- Carter Centre and Presidential Library
- Margaret Mitchell House and Museum
- Children’s Museum of Atlanta
- Atlanta Botanical Garden

BARBADOS COMES TO ATLANTA

2023 Sponsorship Package

Metro Atlanta is here, now and next.
 A region of visionaries who do what others never imagined.
 Inventing. Connecting. Inspiring. Thriving.
 We nurture and welcome the brightest talent – global leaders who disrupt the status quo and crusade to change the world.
 We are dreamers who galvanized the Civil Rights Movement, creatives who are redefining digital entertainment and innovators who are paving an inclusive way to urban development.
 We are lively main streets, lakes nestled in lush greenspaces and bustling nightlife in the city – the options are endless.
 In metro Atlanta, we share one ambition:
 To never stop rising.

BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY

Metro Atlanta has one of the largest economies in the nation with a GDP of $422.2 billion, and it is one of the top five best metros for business climate.

Home to 29 of America’s largest corporations (FORTUNE 1000), including 16 ranked in the elite Fortune 500, as well as nearly 200 of the nation’s fastest-growing private companies (Inc. 5000), metro Atlanta is a premier location for the headquarters of companies across industries. The region has also attracted 40 corporate innovation centers primarily in Midtown, where Georgia Tech is located.

A business-friendly environment and low cost of doing business are key elements for why companies choose metro Atlanta. Site Selection named Georgia the #1 state for business climate for the last eight years (2013-2020). Area Development ranked Georgia the #1 state for doing business for the last seven years (2014-2020). KPMG indexed Atlanta with the lowest relative cost of doing business of the nation’s 10 largest metro areas (2016).

TRANSPORTATION

AIR SERVICE

One of the world's busiest and most efficient airports, Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport (ATL), has five runways that serve more than 110 million passengers a year. More than 80% of the U.S. population is within a two-hour flight from Atlanta.

Nonstop flights to 163 domestic destinations and 76 international destinations.

AIR CARGO

Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport is served by more than 20 all-cargo air carriers. Nearly 650,000 metric tons of cargo passed through ATL in 2019.

HIGHWAYS

Three major highways (I-75, I-85, I-20) converge near the central business district. The perimeter highway (I-285) circles the city in a 62.7-mile loop. Georgia 400 is a six-lane highway providing yet another route to the city via north metro Atlanta. Atlanta's major highways contain High Occupancy Vehicle (HOV) and High Occupancy Toll (HOT) lanes which decrease drive times during peak hours.

RAIL

Abundant rail service makes metro Atlanta the rail center of the Southeast.

- > More than 4,600 railroad miles in Georgia – the largest intermodal hub in the region.
- > Served by two class-one railroads (CSX and Norfolk Southern) and over 20 short-line companies.

OCEAN

The Port of Savannah, located 250 miles from Atlanta, is the largest and fastest growing single-container terminal in North America. The Port of Brunswick, located 300 miles from Atlanta, is the second-busiest port in the U.S. for import and export of Ro/Ro (Roll-On/Roll-Off) cargo (i.e. vehicles).

MASS TRANSIT

Metropolitan Atlanta Rapid Transit Authority (MARTA) is the region's heavy rail and bus service, providing service to 1.7 million residents of metro Atlanta. Every weekday, 500,000 people are transported by MARTA. Service is available at 38 rail stations, including the airport and along 101 bus routes across 1,439 miles. Cobb County Transit (CCT) and Gwinnett County Transit bus service connects to MARTA at various points.
